

DATA ENGINEER

Kaunas

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- design, develop, maintain and continuously improve ETL/ELT solutions;
- develop integrations between various cloud and on-premise solutions, deploy and maintain data pipelines;
- build analytical data models;
- implement automated data quality check and testing models;
- create technical data engineering solution documentation.

COMPANY OFFERS:

- opportunities for professional development and personal growth in international environment;
- possibility to make an impact for international business success;
- a modern, friendly and creative work environment;
- health insurance;
- hybrid work model;
- flexible working hours.

REQUIREMENTS:

- 2+ years ETL development and data warehousing experience;
- experience in building and designing data solutions, deploying ETL process;
- strong knowledge of SQL and Python;
- knowledge of Data Warehouse building principles, including data modelling building and optimizing data pipelines, architectures and data sets;
- understanding of business processes (preferably manufacturing);
- experience with MS Fabric analytics solution (Optional);
- experience with MS PowerBI.

Email your resume to kristina@personalosprendimai.com if you are interested in this position.